Note. The village contains a toddy concedes the toddy revenue to the inamdar. Unauthenticated copies of certain documents executed by the toddy Contractors in favor this revenue by the inamdar.

Neither the investigating officer nor any other has certified to their in the Mysore District in this case also the amount awarded to amounts being entered in the has reported some difficulty in doing this. These matters were

The village was granted in 1818 under a Saamad which conceded all sorts of Huttwal within the boundaries of the village. Sudi had been included in the being accounts of the village. It is recorded in the Inam Ref. Enquiry that the said item of revenue is received through the fat. Contractors every year under Captain Clerk's orders of 21st Jan. 1852? (part the order referred to is not forthcoming) The Inamdar was ~~further referred to be~~ in the enjoyment of the Sudi Revenue at the time of the Inam Settlement & it was therefore conceded to him. In proof of enjoyment, the Inamdar has produced mutchalikas from the fat. Contractors for the years 1864-8

ORDER THEREON.—No.

FL 265-7

The Jodi ^{Dadda} Abbagiloo village in the J. Harsipur Taluk was granted in 1818 under a Samad which conceded to the Inamdar all kinds of Hutuvali within the limits of the village.
The item of Sendi revenue was also included in the being accounts of the village. At the Enam Settlement held in 1879, the toddy ^{revenue} was conceded to the Enamdar, who has also produced evidence of his enjoyment of the revenue from 1864 to 1892. The Investigating Officer holds that the Enamdar is entitled to the Enise revenue of the village & his finding is supported by the Enise Court.

2) Under the circumstances, the Gvt. are pleased to recognize the claim of the Enamdar to the Enise revenue of the village. As there is only a shop & no toddy grove in the village, the case falls under rules 2, 3, 5, 6 & 12
